What Can You Expect?

Check the status of devices in your building, schedule themes or notices to display at the appropriate time and day, preview and publish your content from anywhere at any time, all from one browser login.

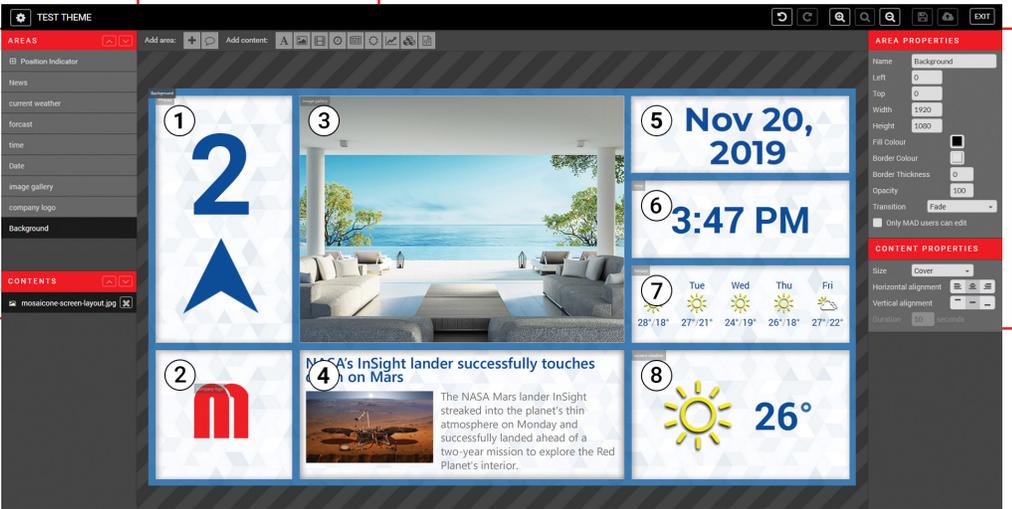

No need to install any software. Simply launch your choice of web browser and log in using your MAD assigned credentials. All your screens will be set up for you prior to your first time logging in.

Simple and Convenient User Experience

The easy-to-use platform gives control of elevator displays to the building user. Displays can include events, directories, slideshows, news feeds, stocks, weather, and more.

The screenshot shows a web-based interface for configuring elevator displays. On the left, a 'Content Areas' sidebar lists options like Position Indicator, News, current weather, forecast, time, date, image gallery, and company logo. The main workspace displays a grid of eight content options, each with a numbered callout (1-8). On the right, a 'Content Properties' panel allows for detailed configuration of the selected content, including fill color, border, and transition settings. Below the interface, a list of eight content options is provided, corresponding to the numbered callouts in the screenshot.
